

MERCY PRAYERS

Releasing mercy over the perpetrators in my life

Loving Father and Righteous Judge, I summons _____ (name) to the heavenly courts. _____(name), I charge you with: 1)_____ (offense #1); 2)_____ (offense #2); 3) _____ (offense #3), etc. You are guilty of these charges and deserving of punishment. HOWEVER, because Jesus chose to extend mercy to me for a debt I could never repay, I choose to extend Jesus' mercy to you for your offenses against me. Jesus, I ask that you not count _____'s (name) sins against him/her. I relinquish my claim on every injustice _____ (name) committed against me, and I transfer jurisdiction of these matters to Jesus. _____ (name), you owe me nothing. I hereby break the power of condemnation off of you, _____(name), and I declare you acquitted, forgiven and free. I also hereby break every tie I have had with the accuser against _____ (name). Enemy, you no longer have power over me and no legal right to torment me. I will not be lured back in by you or commit double jeopardy. I break off my relationship with you now against _____ (name) for good. Father God, I trust you to restore to me all that was stolen, and I now choose to partner with You for _____ (name), and I ask that you bless him/her with every heavenly blessing. (Get specific as you pray for them now with a clean heart!).

Releasing mercy over myself for prolonged unforgiveness

Loving Father and Righteous Judge, I put myself in the defendant's seat in your heavenly court and I charge myself with the offense of unforgiveness against _____ (name) for ____ months/years. Although I am guilty of the sin of unforgiveness and I deserve punishment, I plea the blood of Jesus before the courts of heaven and I release Jesus' mercy over myself, so my sin will not be counted against me. I hereby break off the right of the enemy to accuse and condemn me for this sin. I declare myself acquitted, forgiven and free, and every bit of condemning evidence against me is now canceled in Jesus' name.

Releasing mercy over myself for my sin (violating my conscience)

Loving Father and Righteous Judge, I put myself in the defendant's seat in your heavenly court and I charge myself with the offense of violating my conscience by _____ (name the sin). I also charge myself with ignoring your Holy Spirit's leading to do/not do _____ (name how you ignored the Holy Spirit). Although I am guilty and I deserve punishment, I plea the blood of Jesus before the courts of heaven, and I release Jesus' mercy over myself, so that my sin will not be counted against me. I hereby break off the right of the enemy to accuse and condemn me for this sin. I declare myself acquitted, forgiven and free, and every bit of condemning evidence against me is now canceled in Jesus' name.
